The New Children's Carriages.

If you have little ones the subject ef children's carriages should be of interest just now. The coming of pleasant weather recalls the necessity for baby's daily outing. The spring showing includes many new and unique designs, and for beauty and grace of lines is an exhibit well worth seeing-and buying.

For the balance of the week we have selected two dozen or more patterns on which we have separated the cost from the profit—you pay the cost—in some cases considerably be-Coming Democratic Primary Exciting the Interest of Citizens.

Former Mayor Thompson Declines to Again Contest for Honors.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 727 King Street, Bell Telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 23, 1800. The coming democratic primary for nominating municipal officers is beginning to excite considerable interest, which is principally centered in the selection of candidates for mayor and council. Outside of this there are several offices to be filled, among them being the auditor, tax collector, cor-poration attorney, clerk of gas and a magistrate and constable, representing each of the four wards. It is not expected that there will be much contest over these latter

Mayor Simpson, as before stated, has announced himself a candidate for renomination, and it has been generally accepted that ex-Mayor Thompson would oppose him. Mr. Thompson was approached on the subject, however, Ly a Star reporter this morning and asked to state his position, he declined to say positively whether or not he would be a candidate, but his friends say that he will run. Whatever the outcome it is certain that the supporters of the two gentlemen are busily engaged in election

Smallpox Disappearing.

No new cases of smallpox have been reported to the health department for several days. The disease is apparently rapidly disappearing. At present there are orly fifteen houses under quarantine in the city, and several of these will shortly be disinfected. Of this number only three are occupied by white families.

Two premises were released from quarantine yesterday. One was that of James Smith, No. 820 Queen street, and the other was occupied by a colored family named Frazier, No. 1313 Queen street. The force of health guards has of late been considerably diminished. General Affairs.
